Maintenance: The surface of ECOSTYLE may be cleaned with a damp cloth, ordinary soap and water, or, if considered necessary, with a general-purpose household cleaner. Using a diluted vinegar solution for general purpose cleaning is suitable. Thoroughly dry the surface with a soft, cotton cloth. More stubborn dirt and greasy fingerprints may be removed with solvents such as Acetone (nail polish remover), methyl ethyl ketone (MEK) (use adequate ventilation, beware of open flame). Acidic, alkaline or abrasive cleaners should not be used because it can damage laminate surfaces. Please note - Do not use lemon juice because it is acidic.

Maintenance: The surface of ECOSTYLE may be cleaned with a damp cloth, ordinary soap and water, or, if considered necessary, with a general-purpose household cleaner. Using a diluted vinegar solution for general purpose cleaning is suitable. Thoroughly dry the surface with a soft, cotton cloth. More stubborn dirt and greasy fingerprints may be removed with solvents such as Acetone (nail polish remover), methyl ethyl ketone (MEK) (use adequate ventilation, beware of open flame). Acidic, alkaline or abrasive cleaners should not be used because it can damage laminate surfaces. Please note - Do not use lemon juice because it is acidic.

Maintenance: The surface of ECOSTYLE may be cleaned with a damp cloth, ordinary soap and water, or, if considered necessary, with a general-purpose household cleaner. Using a diluted vinegar solution for general purpose cleaning is suitable. Thoroughly dry the surface with a soft, cotton cloth. More stubborn dirt and greasy fingerprints may be removed with solvents such as Acetone (nail polish remover), methyl ethyl ketone (MEK) (use adequate ventilation, beware of open flame). Acidic, alkaline or abrasive cleaners should not be used because it can damage laminate surfaces. Please note - Do not use lemon juice because it is acidic.
